

Flyway Journeys Wildlife Art Camp

January 2-4, 2015

8th -12th Grade Fellowship

Hosted by California Waterfowl Association

Camp Location:

Denverton in the Suisun Marsh
near Fairfield, CA

Camp Activities (subject to change):

- Wood Carving
- Wildlife Photography
- Sketching animals in movement/ in the field
- Waterfowl Sketching
- Wetland and Wildlife Exploration
- Art Concept Games
- and MORE!

Selection Process:

- 12- 8th-12th grade students are selected to participate in this wildlife art skill-building camp
- Selection is based on an applicant's answers on the essay questions included in the application

How to Participate

- 1) Visit our website to access the application:
<http://www.calwaterfowl.org/scholarships>
- 2) Click link under Flyway Journeys Wildlife Art Camp title to download the application
- 3) Please submit the application by mail to

Attn: Sabreena Britt
Flyway Journeys Wildlife Art Camp
California Waterfowl Association
1346 Blue Oaks Blvd.
Roseville, CA 95678

Or by email to
sbritt@calwaterfowl.org

- 4) Deadline to apply is November 1.
Mail must be postmarked by this date.
- 5) You will be notified of acceptance by November 22

Every camper leaves with a field bag full of wildlife art supplies!